Once more are we called to mourn another of our loved ones. Our sister Lydia Nixon, wife of Thomas Nixon, of this place, who was born August 9th 1844, and departed this life Nov. 4 1886. She united with the Baptist church at Scott's creek, and was baptized by Elder D. G. Barker, the second Sunday in June 1875, being a worthy member until her death. Her sickness was of short duration only lasting six days, in which she suffered constantly and severely. She was very patient through her illness and hopeful of getting well, but when told that all human aid had failed, that she must put her trust in Jesus, she replied that "she had been trusting in Him in years gone by, and was still trusting in Him." She met death as composed as though she had retired in the evening expecting to arise in the bloom of health in the morning. Her husband being by her, she called her children and gave them a mother's advice, telling them to be kind to each other, and to obey their father. She will not only be missed by her own household, but by her neighbors and friends. She was ever ready to lend a helping hand in time of need, always pleasant and cheerful. Those that knew her best loved her most.

"At The Front." is illustrated by the powerful oxyhydrogen light with over 125 actual war views, taken by the government photographer from 1861 to 1865. These are real photographs, and with the aid of the powerful lenses of the Stereopticon, they give graphic scenes of our war days at Antietam, Gettysburg, the Wilderness, Petersburg and Richmond. These views are so realistic that the veteran seems to hear the again the awful "screech" of the of the shell and the angry "ping" of the rifle ball, as the terrible and once familiar scenes pass before him.
The above will be on exhibition at Rempel's Opera House, Monday evening, November 22nd. Admission 25 and 15 cents. Reserved seats 35 cents. Reserved seats can be had at Kessler Bros. Jewelry Store.
